Your Membership Interest in Kiwanis

- Kiwanis is a service organization—not a social club, although enduring friendships are created through the Kiwanis spirit of fellowship that comes from mutual effort devoted to great and useful ends.
- Kiwanis is often a public forum—but never a political circle. Meeting programs frequently provide platforms for the balanced and impartial presentation of public issues of interest to the members—and the community.
- Kiwanis makes its activities known. It is not a secret society. There are no private rituals. Public awareness of Kiwanis activities is sought because it increases support for Kiwanis services efforts.
- Kiwanis fosters principles of good citizenship and human values—it does not prescribe a way of life for others.
- And finally, the actions of each club are guided by the needs of its own locality. Kiwanis does not impose programs upon its club or members.

What Kiwanis Is

Kiwanis is a worldwide organization appealing to men and women who have the desire to become personally involved in making their communities better places in which to live. As a group, they achieve what individuals cannot do alone. Working together, Kiwanians voluntarily share the challenge of community improvements and leadership, assuming personal responsibility for humanitarian and civic projects that public authorities are not prepared to or able to perform. They include such activities as assistance to youth and the aging, conservation of natural resources, development of community facilities and creation of international understanding and goodwill. Whatever their goals may be, Kiwanians are motivated by a common desire to serve, and to achieve an appreciation of good fellowship.
